

When I was first licensed in 1993 as a Tech+ I had zero interest in CW, but when 10 meters died I was forced to use CW to get on the air and soon discovered that I found it more rewarding than any other mode. If I had not been required I would not have made this discovery. Eliminating the requirement would be to detriment of Amateur Radio.